1 Log on to myCigna.com

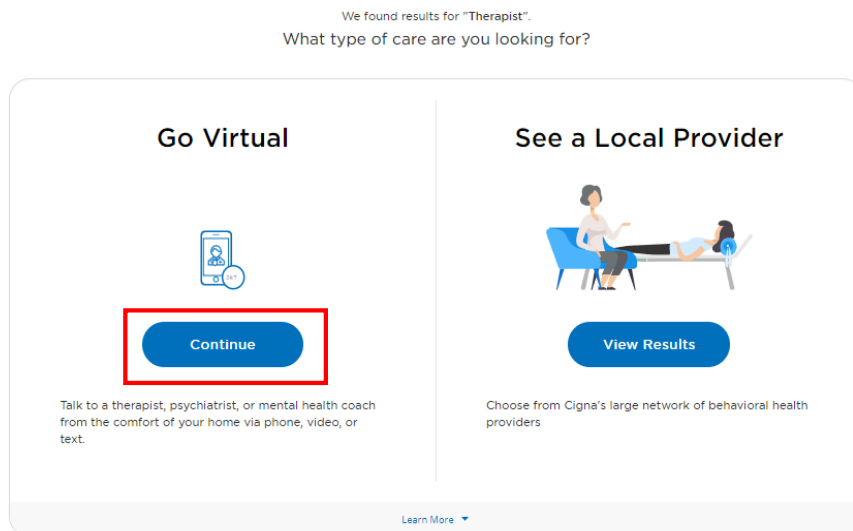

2 Click on "Therapist"

3 Select the health topic you would like your provider to have experience in or use the arrow to view more options and then press "Continue"

4 Click 'continue' under 'Go Virtual' to find virtual providers. Note, if you are seeking providers who can do in person and virtual sessions, follow the link for 'see a local provider'

Next, you will be brought to a page that shows the emotional and behavioral health providers available to you. Your cost estimate will populate according to your specific plan benefit.

5 Once you decide which program you would like to participate in, select the “connect” button to schedule an appointment

You may be asked to enter your medical ID number to verify benefits and credit card information to pay for any copays or co-insurance, if applicable.

MDLIVE for Cigna®

MDLive's friendly therapists and psychiatrists are professionally trained to use virtual technology to treat many non-emergency conditions such as anxiety, depression, stress, relationship issues, and more.

- Connect privately via video or phone with a board-certified psychiatrist or licensed therapist
- Schedule visits at times that work for you, including evenings and weekends
- See the same provider each visit, or change whenever you'd like
- Have prescriptions sent directly to your local pharmacy

Cigna provides access to virtual care through participating in-network providers. Not all providers have virtual capabilities. Cigna also provides access to virtual care through national telehealth providers as part of your plan. This service is separate from your health plan's network and may not be available in all areas or under all plans. Referrals are not required. Video may not be available in all areas or with all providers. All health care providers are solely responsible for the treatment provided to their patients; providers are not agents of Cigna. Refer to plan documents for complete description of virtual care services and costs.

Program services are provided by independent companies/entities and not by Cigna. Programs and services are subject to all applicable program terms and conditions. Program availability is subject to change.
